Pensioners' Associations Appeal for Withdrawal of Recent CCS Pension Rule Amendments

Leading organizations representing Central Civil Services pensioners have expressed deep concern over the recent amendment to the CCS (Pension) Rules, introduced as part of the Finance Bill, 2025. The amendment, which retrospectively alters pension provisions dating back to 1st June 1972, has alarmed the pensioner community due to its discriminatory implications.

The representatives believe that the change violates the spirit of the Supreme Court's Constitution Bench judgment in D.S. Nakara & Others v. Union of India (1982), which prohibits classification among pensioners based on the date of retirement. They have also expressed disappointment that the amendment was introduced through the Finance Bill, thereby bypassing standard consultative and legislative processes.

A peaceful and widespread demonstration by pensioners on 3rd April 2025 across the country reflected the growing unease among retired employees who devoted their careers to national service. There is apprehension that such a policy could influence similar measures by State Governments, adversely affecting lakhs of pensioners.

The undersigned associations urge the Government of India to reconsider the decision and repeal the amendment in the interest of justice, constitutional propriety, and the welfare of senior citizens.
